Brief Report on Swachchhata Hi Seva

Today on 22.09.2018, the staff members including Director of the Institute (ICAR-Central Agroforestry Research Institute, Jhansi) moved to a village named Karari at 09:45 AM and organised cleanliness drives for better sanitation, hand washing, toilet cleaning etc. Door to door meetings were arranged to bring about awareness and responsiveness towards cleanliness. The staffs of the institute visited secondary school of karari village of Jhansi district. The staffs then, talked with the school authorities, principal etc. for knowing what sorts of cleanliness drive is there, the children's are maintaining hygiene or not. It was followed by explaining to children's about how to remain neat and clean, washing their hands time to time, brushing their teeth, keeping the premises of their house and school clean and thus maintaining the highest level of moral responsibility towards cleanliness and hygiene. Total 22 staff members participated in the event.

Report submitted for information, records and further necessary action at the council.
