(Second Party)

1. BACKGROUND

Central Agricultural University, Lamphelpat, Imphal

The Central Agricultural University has been established by an act of Parliament, the Central Agricultural University Act, 1992 (No.40 of 1992). The Act came into effect on 26th January, 1993 with the issue of notification by the Department of Agricultural Research and Education (DARE), Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers' Welfare, Govt. of India. The University became functional with the joining of first Vice-Chancellor on 13th September, 1993. The jurisdiction of the University extends to seven North-Eastern Hill States viz., Arunachal Pradesh, Manipur, Meghalaya, Mizoram, Sikkim, Nagaland and Tripura, with headquarters at Imphal in Manipur.

Central Agroforestry Research Institute, Jhansi (Uttar Pradesh)

ICAR-Central Agroforestry Research Institute (ICAR-CAFRI), formerly the National Research Centre on Agroforestry, is a multidisciplinary premier research institute of Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR) located at Gwalior Road, Jhansi, Uttar Pradesh. The Institute was established in 1988 with a mission to improve quality of life of rural people through integration of perennials on agriculture landscape for economic, environmental and social benefits. The Institute works with a vision of "Integration of woody perennials in the farming system to improve land productivity through conservation of soils, nutrients and biodiversity to augment natural resource conservation, restoration of ecological balance, alleviation of poverty and to mitigate risks of weather vagaries". The Institute is mandated to develop sustainable agroforestry practices for farms, marginal land and wastelands in different agroclimatic zones of India; Coordinate network research for identifying agroforestry technologies for inter-region; Training in agroforestry research for ecosystem analysis and Transfer of agroforestry technology in various agroclimatic zones. CAFRI has developed robust agroforestry models and package of practices for different agro-climatic conditions covering small and marginal farmers.

2. PURPOSE & SCOPE OF COLLABORATION

The potential areas of collaboration include research, education, training, capacity building, experience sharing and knowledge management, in the domain of Agroforestry and Natural Resource based Sustainable Livelihood Promotion & Ecosystem Health Management. The specific areas for joint activities will be decided in due course of time.

3. OUTLINES OF THE COLLABORATION

This document is not intended to create legal or binding obligations on either party. It serves only as a record of the parties' current intentions. This will be a sustaining program and will help sourcing funds for collaborate research/academic programs from external agencies. We also plan to work on a joint online degree program in Agroforestry, which could be an avenue for further cooperation between CAU & its constituent colleges and CAFRI.

Under the aegis of this agreement, CAU & its constituent colleges and CAFRI shall jointly explore the possibilities of working mainly in the north-eastern parts of India. The major focus of this collaboration shall be on:

- Developing joint curricula for mutually identified programs;
- Guiding students for Ph.D. research with CAFRI as an extended campus of CAU & its constituent colleges;
- Joint research in agroforestry and hill farming including forest farm interface;
- Promoting agroforestry models suitable for the north-eastern region through establishment and demonstration of successful tree-based farming solutions;
- Each institution will encourage the exchange of faculty/scientists for joint teaching and research programs on agroforestry and climate change mitigation and adaptation, and collaborative professional training program on agroforestry and allied aspects including distance education programs in agroforestry;
- Faculty/Scientists from each institution will collaborate in developing proposals for external funding as appropriate;
- Both CAFRI and CAU agrees to include scientists/faculties as major Advisor/Co-Advisor/member of the Advisory Committee of PG and Ph. D. students of CAU.
- Both CAFRI and CAU agrees to exchange planting material/germplasm for testing and evaluation at respective locations.

(Second Party)

- Any expenses incurred by each institution under this agreement will be the sole responsibility of the institutions concerned;

3.1 Academic and Research Collaboration:

In pursuant of the agreement, academic and research collaborations shall be initiated between both institutions/parties. Academic collaboration shall involve, faculty members/scientists visiting their counterpart institution for short term (1-3 months) teaching assignments, evaluation and curriculum development. The eligible faculty members may also be a part of the dissertation/thesis supervision along with the host institution faculty members.

Research collaboration shall involve, visits of faculty members/scientists to each other's institution, and write collaborative research projects for funding and be a part of in-house research funded projects. Research collaboration shall involve being a part of the publication authorship group, keeping the intellectual property rights intact.

3.2 Exchange of academic information, data generation and dissemination, and scholarly publications:

In pursuant of the agreement, exchange of academic information, data regeneration and dissemination and scholarly publications shall be the privilege of both parties/institutions involved. The data generation could be from primary or secondary source. The samples to be collected from field areas shall be shared as per convenience and the Government protocols. Secondary data source and sharing shall also need to have clearances of the Government procedures. The publications and authorship shall be discussed among the research groups exclusively and the institute shall not be involved on this matter. Dissemination of information to print/visual media shall be as per the Government protocols.

4. Performance Standards

The Parties shall perform their respective roles and responsibilities under this MoU with highest standards of professional and ethical competence and integrity.
